

PROGRAMME

Prisoners of war in the twentieth century – Actors, concepts and changes

24th - 25th November 2014

Faculdade de Ciências Sociais e Humanas – Universidade Nova de Lisboa
I&D Building – Room Multiusos 2, 4th Floor

DAY 1 - MONDAY, NOVEMBER 24TH 2014

9:30-11:00 First World War, imprisonment experiences - Portugal | Chair: António Paulo Duarte

Dos gritos do cativo ao silêncio do poder político – A resposta da República aos prisioneiros portugueses da 1.ª Guerra Mundial

Fátima Mariano, (IHC-FCSH-UNL)

Prisioneiros de guerra entre inimigos não declarados. O caso de Naulila: 1914-1915

Olga Maria Oliveira, Sofia Nabais de Oliveira Freitas e Menezes e José Miguel Moreira Freire, (Academia Militar)

O Corpo Expedicionário Português na Grande Guerra: a dura experiência das tropas portuguesas nos campos de prisioneiros na Alemanha

José Luís Assis, (CEHFCi-UE e IHC-FCSH-UNL)

A Grande Guerra nos Açores e a concentração de prisioneiros alemães na ilha Terceira

Sérgio Rezendes, (IHC e Universidade dos Açores)

11:00-11:15 Coffee Break

11:15-13:30 First World War, imprisonment experiences - Portugal II | Chair: Luís Alves de Fraga

A experiência do cativo na Europa (1917-1918)

Carlos Alves Lopes, (IHC-FCSH-UNL)

Contributo para o estudo dos prisioneiros algarvios na Alemanha na I Grande Guerra

Joaquim Rodrigues, (IHC-FCSH-UNL)

O depósito de concentrados alemães em Angra do Heroísmo, Açores

Sérgio Rezendes, (IHC e Universidade dos Açores)

“O meu avô foi prisioneiro dos alemães na Grande Guerra”. A memória dos familiares dos prisioneiros portugueses na Primeira Guerra Mundial

Margarida Portela (IHC-FCSH-UNL)

14:00-15:00 Lunch

15:00-16:00 Second World War: the Italian experience | Chair: Rui Vieira

The forgotten prisoners: Italian POWs in Great Britain during WWII

Isabella Insolubile, (Università degli studi di Napoli “Federico II”)

Behind-outside the barbed wire. Allied prisoners of war in Italy: from the internment to the evasion

Eugenia Corbino, (University of Florence)

From enemies to almost allies ? The Italian prisoners of war in the United States of America during the Second World War

Mario de Prospo, (Università degli Studi di Napoli “Federico II”)

16:15-16:30 Coffee Break

16:30-17:30 Second World War: the German experience | Chair: Ana Paula Pires

Entre o Poder dos EUA e da URSS: o significado de ser prisioneiro alemão na II Guerra Mundial

Marisa Fernandes, (ISCSP-UL)

Prisoners of Hitler and Stalin

Maria Teresa Giusti, (University "G. d'Annunzio" of Chieti)

The Nazi treatment of the Soviet prisoners of war during WWII

Jean-Michel Turcotte, (Université Laval)

Quoi faire des soldats d'Hitler ? Les relations canado-britanniques face à la detention des prisonniers de guerre allemands au Canada, 1939-1945

Olga Baranova, (Gonzaga University – Florence)

The handling and interrogation of captured agents of the Special Operations Executive – 1940-45

Roderick Bailey, (Oxford University)

DAY 2 - TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 25TH 2014

9:30-10:30 Second World War: African and Asian experiences | Chair: Jakob Zollmann

Les prisonniers de guerre européennes au Cameroun (1939-1945). Statuts itéraires et expériences

Idrissou Alioum, (Université de Yaoundé I)

Italian POWs in South Africa. Memory, History and Narrative

Donato Somma, (University of the Witwatersrand)

"The POWiere Song": Italian prisoners stating captivity in East African Camps (1940-1946)

Elena Bellina, (University of Rochester)

The Congolese Force Publique and its Italian prisoners of war in Ethiopia, 1941

Jeannick Vangansbeke, (Ghent University)

Examining the prisoner of war, decolonization and the cold war in the interrogation rooms of the Korean War

Monica Kim, (University at Albany)

10:45-11:00 Coffee Break

11:00-12:30 POW camps, memory and violence | Chair: Jakob Zollmann

The prison has become a political battlefield: how POW camps transform practices of political imprisonment

Padraic Kenney, (Indiana University)

Denied memory spaces. Collective memoirs not shared in the past. Looking back from the XXth century experience to the elite prisoners of the Peninsular War

Maria Zozaya, (CIDEHUS – Universidade de Évora)

13:00-14:00 – Lunch

14:00-15:30 The dehumanization of the enemy | Chair: Alice Cunha

Vichy e os prisioneiros de Guerra portugueses no campo do Vernet durante a 2.ª Guerra Mundial

Cristina Clímaco, (Universidade de Paris 8 Vincennes Saint-Denis)

O percurso político do angolano António Jacinto: da formação do Partido Comunista Angolano a prisioneiro no Campo de Trabalho de Chão Bom

Anabela Silveira, (IHC-FCSH-UNL)

Spanish war prisoners in Russia, 1941-1954

Bernabé Sarabia and Demétrio Castro, (Universidad de Navarra)

Prisioneiros de guerra – um factor que pode vencer a guerra e a paz

Cláudio Forjaz, (Exército brasileiro)

15:30-16:00 – Coffee Break

16:00-17:30 Peace and repatriation | Chair: Rui Vieira

The long process of repatriating POWs after the First World War and the International Humanitarian Actions

Hazuki Tate, (Ecole des Hautes Études en Sciences Sociales)

Save Europe now and the campaign to repatriate German prisoners of war in Britain c. 1945-48: Anglo-German relations, British values and “slave trading”

Alan Malpass, (Sheffield Hallam University)

Trauma, Absence and everyday life in Francoist Spain during the fifties: arrival and reintegration of the Spanish Prisoners of war from the Soviet Union

David Alegre Lorenz e Francisco J. Leira Castiñeira, (Universitat Autònoma de Barcelona and Universidade de Santiago de Compostela)

Prisoners of War and Peace: the Siberian internment of Japanese former soldiers within the context of Soviet Camps, 1945-1956

Sherzod Muminov, (University of Cambridge)

Organizers:

Ana Paula Pires (IHC-FCSH-UNL)

Jakob Zollmann (Berlin Social Science Center)

Maria Fernanda Rollo (IHC-FCSH-UNL)

Martim Arinto (IHC-FCSH-UNL)

Venue:

Faculdade de Ciências Sociais e Humanas – Universidade Nova de Lisboa

I&D Building – Room Multiusos 2, 4th Floor

Avenida de Berna, 26 C